(Spot the difference) There are two images, ImageA and ImageB. The ImageB is a slightly modified version of ImageA. Your task is to write a MATLAB code that reads ImageA and ImageB then outputs the difference as an image (shown below right).

ImageA   ImageB   The 4 different changes